

A. Answer the questions.

- 1. Many people are indigenous to the Arctic region. What does indigenous mean in this statement?
 - a. They have lived there for a short time.
 - b. They have lived there for a long time.
 - c. The people are visitors.
 - d. The people are there for work.

- 2. What is an igloo?
 - a. A big building made of wood.
 - b. A small building made of stone.
 - c. A small building made of snow.
 - d. A big building made of fire.

- 3. Were Inuits the first to build igloos?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

- 4. Do Nenets, Khanty, Evenki and Chukchi live in Russia?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

- 5. Can you travel around the Arctic with a snowmobile?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

- 6. Which one is not an indigenous group of the Arctic regions?
 - a. Chukchi
 - b. Sami
 - c. Khanty
 - d. Alaskans

- 7. What can't you do in the Arctic regions?
 - a. Go and see the northern lights
 - b. Play in the forest.
 - c. Trek through the rain to see wild animals.
 - d. Learn to ice fish

- 8. Can you travel around the arctic with snowshoes?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

9. Where do the Inuit people live? Choose 3 things.

Canada	Alaska	Alberta
England	Finland	Greenland

10.. Would you live in an igloo? Why or why not? (open)

B. Choose the correct word to complete the story.

snowmobile	indigenous	Igloos	Sleighs
Inuit	snow	Canada	long

Many people are _____ to the Arctic regions. They have lived there for a very _____ time. The _____ are indigenous to the Arctic regions. They live in _____, Alaska, and Greenland. _____ were first built by the Inuits. An igloo is a small build made of _____. How do you travel around the Arctic? You can use a _____. You can use snowshoes and sleighs, too! _____ are so much fun. The Arctic is a wonderful place to live in!

C. Match the picture to the sentence.

1
2
3

You can trek through the snow,

I want to learn how to ice fish!

This is a snow plow. It is used to move snow,

4
5
6

Sleighs are so fun!

I use snowshoes to help me walk in snow.

They live in an igloo.

D. Put the title, and the paragraphs in the correct order.

	Number
Many people are indigenous to the Arctic region. They have lived there for a long time. They know many ways to live in a cold place.
This is a sleigh. It helps move people in the snow. Sleighs are fun, but cold.
The Sami are indigenous to the Arctic region. They live in Finland, Sweden, Norway, and Northwest Russia.
How do you travel around the Arctic? This is a snowmobile. It helps you travel through snow. It has no tires. It uses skis.
Snowshoes help you walk in snow. You put them under your shoes. It is fun to walk in them. You can run in them, too, but you must practice!
Living in the Polar Regions
This is a snow plow. You use it to move snow.
The Inuit are indigenous to the Arctic region.

They live in Canada, Alaska, and Greenland. Do you know what an igloo is? Igloos were first built by the Inuits. An igloo is a small building made of snow. A long time ago some people lived in igloos. There are many indigenous groups living in the Arctic. We can learn a lot from indigenous groups.
The Aleut, and Yupik are indigenous to the Arctic region. They live in Alaska
This is a snow cat. It helps many people travel through snow. It has no tires. It has big tracks.
Can you visit the Arctic regions? Yes, you can! There are many amazing things to see and do here. You can see the northern lights. You can trek through the snow to see some wild animals. You can play in the forests. You can learn to ice fish. The Arctic is a wonderful place to live, and visit.
The Nenets, Khanty, Evenki and Chukchi are indigenous to the Arctic region. They all live in Russia.
What is life like in the Arctic? Life in the Arctic is hard, interesting, and fun.

E. Word Count. Read the passage again. Count how many times you see the following words.

Word	How many times did you see this word in the story?
snow
sleigh igloo (igloos)
indigenous group (groups)

Today I learned:
