

A. Definition

1. A pronoun _____.
- a. takes the place of an action word.
 - b. takes the place of a naming word.
 - c. takes the place of a describing word.

B. Underline the pronouns in the second sentences. Write the noun or nouns it replaced.

Example: Tornadoes are frightening. They are strong, spinning winds.

Nouns:	tornadoes
---------------	------------------

1. The funnel reaches down from dark clouds. It may hit the Earth.

Nouns:
---------------	--

2. Scientists are studying tornadoes. They don't know why they form.

Nouns:
---------------	--

3. Kayla watched a tornado hit near her town. She was scared to see it.

Nouns:
---------------	--

4. The storm didn't hurt Kayla. She was too far away.

Nouns:
---------------	--

5. The scientists followed the tornado. It moved very fast to the next town.

Nouns:
---------------	--

6. People stayed in their houses. They kept safe.

Nouns:
---------------	--

7. The storm passed quickly. It moved away and the sky became clear.

Nouns:
---------------	--

8. Tornadoes are dangerous. Stay far away from them.

Nouns:
---------------	--

C. Read each sentence. Write the pronoun or pronouns in each sentence in the space provided.

1. Robin and Paul's garden has many weeds in it.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

2. The two of them grow plants.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

3. She reads about weeds.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

4. They grow vegetables and fruits in the garden.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

5. "A friend helped us plant corn last spring," Paul said.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

6. They have a son called Lucas.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

7. He likes to climb trees.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

8. They told us the story of when he found a puppy.

Pronouns:
------------------	--

D. Write a sentence for each pronoun.

I
me
you he she
it
him
her we you they us
them	